

COINN 2024

Supporting Closeness - Building Relations

6.-8. May 2024 - Aalborg - Denmark

Aalborg March 25

Dear COINN 2024 conference participant

On behalf of the COINN 2024 organizing committee, we are delighted to welcome delegates, presenters, and exhibitors, all who care for the small and sick newborn, to join us in beautiful Aalborg, Denmark for COINN 2024 held in collaboration with the Danish Neonatal Nurses Organization. We come together five years after the last COINN conference in New Zealand to celebrate once more Neonatal Nursing with our post-pandemic theme of supporting closeness and building relations.

Your valuable contribution will enrich our gathering and enhance the exchange of knowledge and expertise in neonatal care. Your dedication to the field of neonatal nursing is truly commendable, and we eagerly anticipate your presentation.

We are very happy and proud to welcome you to Aalborg, Denmark for COINN 2024!

Herewith some general information about the conference and conference activities:

If your abstract has been accepted for presentation please confirm your participation at your earliest convenience, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions or need further assistance.

Posters must be handed in at check-in. Size: max 2 meters tall and 1 meter wide. Not too heavy to be hanged with double adhesive tape. More info about poster walk on Wednesday May 8 will follow.

Oral presenters: Please bring your presentation on a USB key in a closed envelope marked with Name, date of presentation, specific room, and title. Program information on room, time and date of presentation is located at the conference website.

At the check-in desk Monday morning we will be ready to guide you.

After the tour, there will be ample opportunity to find a place to enjoy your evening meal in our cozy town. Aalborg is the capital of North Jutland, a city in a league of its own. It is a small city with its own unique atmosphere and attractions and experiences including museums, ancient monuments, historic buildings, world-class architecture, and restaurants. In addition, it has unique shopping, cobblestones in cozy streets, the relaxing Fjordpark and an inviting and vibrant waterfront. In 2019 Aalborg was ranked No. 8 on the New York Times' list of places in the world that deserve a visit.

“Aalborg is one of Scandinavia's leading street art cities, and in the city center, you can experience more than 80 art pieces that not only give a wow effect – they also give food for thought. Explore the city's large outdoor gallery”
